How it Works

The informer shows:

- Indicator name
- Currency Pair
- Current Time
- New Candle
- Last Signal
- Extra Entry Point 1
- Extra Entry Point 2

New Candle – shows the time until the opening of a new candle.

Last Signal – the type of current signal.

Extra Entry Point 1 – is the first extra entry point that allows to enter an additional trade within the same signal. It can be also considered as a confirmation of an initial signal (BUY or SELL).

Extra Entry Point 2 - is the second extra entry point that allows to enter an additional trade within the same signal (BUY or SELL).

The oscillator graph shows the trend: BLUE for BUY and YELLOW for SELL.

The oscillator waves height changes depending on the price rise or fall.

The closer to the zero line, the more likely the signal will change.

BUY signal

SELL signal

Entering Trades

When a new signal is just generated, the informer defines the trend: BUY or SELL.

You can BUY when a BLUE graph appears in the oscillator window together with the first BLUE arrow on the chart.

You can SELL when a YELLOW graph appears in the oscillator window together with the first YELLOW arrow on the chart.

"Forex Triple Hit" generates up to 3 entry points within the same signal: Main Entry Point, Extra Entry Point 1, Extra Entry Point 2. So, you can open up to 3 orders within the same (BUY or SELL) signal.

You can also enter the trade when Extra Entry Point 1 is generated:

The informer shows that Extra Entry Point 1 is generated as well as a Small BLUE/YELLOW Arrow (the second one) on the chart:

Exiting Trades

Option 1:

Exit trades when the opposite signal appears.

For example, when a BLUE graph appears in the oscillator window together with the first BLUE arrow on the chart - close your Sell order.

When a YELLOW graph appears in the oscillator window together with the first YELLOW arrow on the chart - close your Buy order.

Option 2:

Use the exact Take Profit values shown in all types of signal alerts: Popup alert, Email Alert and Push Notification Alert.

Option 3:

Exit trades as soon as you get an alert (in that case you don't need to watch on the chart all the time). For example, as soon as you get a BUY signal alert - close your SELL order. As soon as you get a SELL signal alert - close your BUY order.

Option 4:

Another exit mechanism is to exit near strong support or resistance levels. It's a good method if you prefer trading in a safer manner.

Support & Resistance Levels

The indicator shows the Support and Resistance levels that traders can use as an additional confirmative tool.

They're generated on the basis of behavior of markets in similar, past situations. The support level is where the price regularly stops falling and bounces back up, while the resistance level is where the price normally stops rising and dips back down.

It's better to avoid entering the trade if the signal is moving closely towards the level, it can either bounce back away from the support or resistance line.

Do not use the indicator on a weak/slow market – outside recommended trading hours (London or US sessions). Signals never work well on a weak market; this has been proven many times...

The London session is the largest market and it opens at 08:00 GMT or 03:00 EST and closes at 17:00 GMT or 12:00 EST.

Trading is best between 08:00 GMT and 10:00 GMT

The New York session opens at 13:00 GMT or 08:00 EST and closes at 22:00 GMT or 17:00 EST.

The best trades occur in the first 2-3 hours.

The time is shown in 24:00 format.

IMPORTANT: It is extremely important to trade only following the current trend! It will cut BIG MAJORITY of bad trades! Avoid trading against trend at all times.

To properly determine the direction of the trend, always refer to 1-2 timeframes higher than your current timeframe (if trading on H1, check trend direction on H4 or D1).

Also, stay away from trading completely when the market is flat.

Stay away from using the signals when you see unclear trend, flat or sideways trends – example:

Please follow these just explained rules and all rules mentioned in this user guide to achieve best results. Don't ignore them as they are designed to help you.

Money Management Rules

Money management is a very important concept that has an enormous effect on drawdown and margin calls. The cardinal rule of money management is the following:

Rule 1) Never risk more than 1-3% of your deposit on any single trade.

You may have heard this rule a hundred times before, but it is amazing to see how many good traders fail to comprehend this concept – and don't understand why they are wiped out again and again, despite great entries and timing of trades.

StopLoss is calculated regardless of your level of risk or your equity, and is based solely on price-action. After deciding on the StopLoss, enter it together with your deposit size and desired Risk % in a Lot Size calculator.

To calculate Lot Size, you can use this online calculator:

<https://www.myfxbook.com/forex-calculators/position-size>

Rule 2) Never gain/lose more than 10% of your deposit in any single day.

1) For example, your deposit is 100%.

2) Each trading day should either result in a 10% gain or 10% loss. Never more than 10%.

3) Let's imagine that out of 5 trading days, we had 3 profitable days (10% gain each day) and 2 losing days (10% loss each day).

4) According to this example, by the end of the trading week we would have made 10% profit. Here is the formula:

$$100\%(\text{Deposit}) + 30\%(\text{Profitable Days}) - 20\%(\text{Losing Days}) = 110\%$$

If we didn't use this method, some of our losing days could have resulted in more losses (for example 15% or 25%) and in the end of the trading week, we could have been left with 50% of the deposit.

I hope now you understand why it is important to never gain or lose more than 10% of your deposit in 1 trading day. Never try to double your deposit in 1 day and always stop trading once you have lost 10% of your deposit. Slow and steady wins the race.

Rule 3) Never use Martingale Strategy!

This is a very unsafe money management strategy that promotes increasing Lot Size after every loss. At first, this might seem as a good method to cover a previous loss and make profit, but actually, it almost always leads to burning entire deposits.
